This document contains information about the management of forested areas and the reforestation requirements for off-site retention. The details provided include the size and type of land to be preserved, the methods of preserving the forested land, and the criteria for the reforestation process. The document also includes a map and diagrams to illustrate the proposed actions.